

Since,I have had my name on the no call list, I can enjoy my dinner, and my evening at home with out answering my phone and listening to a sales pitch. If I want to contact a company I feel it is up to me to make the contact. Please leave the law the way it is and allow us to have some peace. Thank you